LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1942

We, the class of Nineteen Forty-two of Fort Benton High School, being of fairly sound mind and knowing that we may soon depart this life, do declare this to be our last will and testament.

PATRICIA ANDERSON leaves her child-like innocence to Marjorie Huffman. Do you want it, Marjorie?

LURENE ANDERSON leaves her boisterous nature to Jewel Callison.

VELMA AMES leaves her slang to Ellen Eveleth.

JACK ANDERSON leaves his position as cheerleader to "Speed" Smith.

MARGARET BIRKELAND leaves her ability to stick to one boy to Helen Campbell. (May she do as well!)

LORRAINE BAKER leaves ribbons and medals to "Bud" Jones.

ARTHUR BENNETT leaves his springy arches to "Buck" Preuninger.

FRANK CLARK wills his agricultural ability to George Paul. Make good use of it.

GEORGE CALKINS leaves his patriotic interest in the coast guard to the girls.

JACQUELINE CASTOR unwillingly wills Bill Collins to the army.

LUCILLE CALLISON wills her shy smile to Lucille Hanford—from one Lucille to another.

LENORE FRIELING leaves her tall willowy figure to Margaret Collins.

MARY GRAY wills her versatile interests in school to Florence Breault.

ALICE GALBRAITH, in remembrance of corns, leaves her dancing ability to future freshmen.

DARYL HAGIE leaves his sweet and melodious trumpeting to "Buzzy" Jackson to carry on.

CLARK HILTON leaves his ability to be the only boy in a crowd of girls to Clair Sykes.

HAROLD KRSUL leaves his "man-about-town" personality to Glen Hicks.

BILL KOEPP leaves his out-of-doors life to some of the drugstore loungers on Front Street.

FERN KELLY leaves her tendency to giggle in sociology to Leo Kilroy.

BERTHA LUNDY leaves her Loma drawl to Emily Myers.

JOHN LIPPERT leaves his wavy pompadour to Gene Frieling.

BILL LOUTHER leaves the cleft in his chin to Robert Craig, who might have as much good luck with it.

FRANK MANLEY leaves his rosy cheeks to Helen Christensen.

DICK MOSES leaves his smile to posterity to see who could equal it.

KEITH NEYLAND leaves his teasing and tormenting to Bob Brust.

ANGELA NICOLOFF bequeaths her eleven to twelve hours out of school to anyone who needs the time in which to prepare lunch.

MARY NICOLOFF wills her even-tempered disposition to the future students of FBHS, who may profit by the knowledge that a smile wins more than a frown.

JEAN REYNOLDS leaves her freckles to Jim Morger.

EFFIE RITLAND leaves the ghost of endless whisperings in class rooms, halls, and library. We hope it won't make anyone too lonesome.

DOROTHY RONNING wills her twirling ability to Phyllis, just to keep it in the family.

LORNE RITTER wills his shy nature to George Lippert.

DON RUST wills his "slick tripping in the halls" technique to Dorothy Ritter.

BETTY SCHMIDT leaves her husky voice to Freddy Katzenberger.

BARBARA SCOTT leaves her height to Ronny Archer. You could use it in your boxing, Ronny.

GERALDINE SCHUHMACHER bequeaths her place at the last table in the sixth period study hall to any underclassman who is looking for a "place in the sun."

ROSEMARY SCHUHMACHER wills her spontaneous disposition to Alice Elliott.

CECIL SERIGHT wills his fifth year of English to Maynard Conway.

WARREN STANTON wills his great interest in girls to Kenny Young.

LEONARD STEINBACHER bequeaths his constant chatter to Norma Jean Montgomery.

MABEL STEVENS leaves her blondness to Eva Nita Rupp.

JOHN SULLIVAN wills his versatile wit to Noel Anderson.

VIRGINIA SWANSON leaves her abundance of hair to Henriette Gray. Can you find room for it, Kiki?

WILLIAM TOPE leaves his ability to act professor parts to Prof. Hagie.

KENNETH VINION wills his "corn" to any barnyard.

DOLORES WAGNER leaves a long whistle on passing, to the boys who are still practicing that technique.

PATRICIA WACKERLIN leaves her ability to cope with studies to Ann Katzenberger.

WALTER WEEKS bequeaths his tendency to "love 'em and leave 'em" to Eldon Adams.

STANLEY WHITEHORN leaves his Einstein brain to "Skip" Johnson to use in the future.

SYLVIA WOLFE leaves her habit of rolling her eyes ceiling-ward to Miss Hagie who doesn't want it.

JAMES WOOD leaves his lumbering gait to Theresa Drewiske.

EDWARD DICKENS leaves us for the Marines.

ARNAM WILEY bequeaths sadly the extra semester in which to graduate to any misguided student who thinks that playing pays.

TOM McKENZIE bequeaths, much against his conservative desires, his horseback riding to Esther Humphrey. It's a good pastime until the war is over, Esther.

We, the Seniors of Nineteen Forty-two, do swear this to be our only and last will and do sign and affix our seal thereunto.

THE SENIORS OF 1942.

IT WILL HAPPEN IN 1967

VELMA AMES, the skiing instructor at Shonkin Lodge, has just set a new world's record in ski jumping with a jump of one foot one and one-half inches.

LORNE RITTER is the newest Power's model for the latest masculine coiffures of 1967.

JACK ANDERSON and SYLVIA WOLFE, the most popular dance team of the hour, have created the newest dance craze, the Missouri hop.

DR. LORRAINE BAKER has announced her recent marriage which, she believes, is her ninth.

Because of ART BENNETT'S interest in the models he paints, his wife divorced him recently.

MARGARET BIRKELAND RITTER'S ten year old mathematical genius has just entered college.

GEORGE CALKIN, after years of research, has brought out a new hair tonic which is positively guaranteed to keep hair down; but, unfortunately, while experimenting with it on his own head, he became bald.

WARREN STANTON has won the title of the world's fastest talker.

LUCILLE CALLISON has just won first prize for the tenth straight year for her sauerkraut. She attributes her success to Loma climatic conditions.

It has been reported that JACQUELINE CASTOR COLLINS and LENORE FRIELING were the cause of the prairie fire which ravaged the Carter area. They were arguing about who was the prize partner of "CASANOVA" JAMES WOODS.

WALTER WEEKS was just recently shot while serenading his girl, number 1000. Her father thought he was a coyote prowling around the house.

The monkeys in the Bronx Zoo have just drawn up a petition for the ousting of their keeper, JUNIOR TOPE. He attracts too much of the spectators' attention.

ALICE GALBRAITH has started giving "snazzy" convertible coupes away to young men so that the girls may enjoy the same privilege she did in her "debutante" days.

MARY GRAY and PROFESSOR STANLEY WHITEHORN, her husband, have won the title of "the Family of the Year." Mrs. Whitehorn graciously stated, "Twelve children are a little hard on the figure and nervous system, but the joy of having a little arm around one's neck is recompense."

CLARK HILTON is the women's idea of the most manly physique.

WILLIAM KOEPP has retired from college to draw his old age Townsend pension.

BERTHA LUNDY is the first ballerina of the Ballet Russe.

KEITH NEYLAND is the leading efficiency expert of Wall Street.

MABEL STEVENS tried out a new dish on her husband, HAROLD KRSUL; she is now held on the charge of manslaughter.

DARYL HAGIE is the chief doorman for the Chouteau House.

BILL LOUTHER is the chief streetcleaner for Carter.

PATRICIA WACKERLIN blows soap bubbles which have become substitutes for balloons.

PATRICIA "Muscle Bound Baby" ANDERSON has just retired after twenty-two successful years in the boxing ring.

FERN KELLEY enjoys her life among the Arctic Eskimos. Her occupation? It's teaching them how to make walrus and seal crepe suszettes.

RICHARD MOSES has started a "Back to Nature" movement. His motto is "a rag, a bone, and a hank of hair."

TOM MCKENZIE brushes the curls and curves out of the grain in the wood being used in making a desk for ARNAM WILEY, the chief executive of the Ostrich Animal Cracker Company.

JOHN SULLIVAN has just been promoted and had a raise in salary. His position? He's chief pencil sharpener for the Chrysler Corporation.

JEAN REYNOLDS is the chief window opener-and-closer of the Empire State Building.

BETTY SCHMIDT won the Nobel Prize for endurance. She's just received the rejection slips on her latest unsuccessful novel, number 5599.

GERALDINE SCHUHMACHER has just won wide recognition in the fashion field for her sister make-up and hair dye for the NICOLOFFS, who are known as the best dressed women in opera.

BARBARA SCOTT is the new suspension bridge across the Grand Canyon.

ROSEMARY SCHUHMACHER is the chief tester of playground slides and teeter totter for EDWARD DICKENS'S "Playground Equipment Corporation."

JOHN LIPPERT designs cuckoos for Bulova clocks.

EFFIE RITLAND was declared the victor over DOT RONNING in a squabble over the respective merits of bringing the needle to the thread or the thread to the needle when threading needles.

LEONARD STEINBACHER, the "Casper Milquetoast" of Dogpatch, has just received a compound fracture of the thigh when he tripped over his big toe.

DONALD RUST shells peanuts for Planters.

CECIL SERIGHT has earned the much esteemed title of the world's authority on bootstraps.

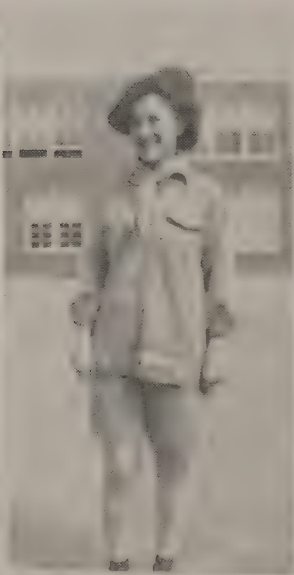

DOLORES WAGNER and KENNETH VINION, the ideal couple, have just completed their "Xanadu" on the Island.

VIRGINIA SWANSON is a professional dueller. Her prize weapons? Water pistols.

LURENE ANDERSON has just "landed" in the hospital with nervous prostration; she lifted her little finger.

FRANK MANLEY has just developed a new hybrid cow which is reported to "give" whipped cream.

FRANK CLARK, after trying various occupations, has returned to Fort Benton, where you'll find him sitting in the shade in the park.

JUNIOR CLASS

We like vim, vigor, and zip. In what better way could we prove it than in our choice of Leo Kilroy as president for the second successive year? Guess it's just the start we got in high school. To go into a "brand new buildin'" still smelling of fresh paint and varnish—gee, what class couldn't have pep!

"School's a place for learning and fun" is our axiom. Some of our classmates have done really outstanding things in the Bozeman scholarship contests, and "our" basketball players have shown themselves to be good material for the successors of the graduating players. We've also been active members in other school activities.

We think we'll make outstanding seniors next year, how about you?

---

JUNIOR PLAY

With Spring in the air, who could blame the Juniors for becoming slightly "June Mad"? After almost a month of trials and tribulations, they showed their efforts to the public on April 17. Leo Kilroy, as Roger Van Vleck, the suave lady-killer, tried his charms on fifteen year old Penny Woods, played by Marjorie Manley, and she liked it; while her parents, Claire Sykes and Mabel Lucas, patiently watched the whole episode. But Chuck Harris, (Harry Pavelis), an old time friend, who liked gliders finally won Penny after a disastrous glider trip taken against the will of his father, Arthur Kleinschmidt. But Roger had already turned his attention to Mervyn Wood's girl friend, Julie Harris (Alice Elliot), much to the discomfort of Mervyn himself (Robert Craig) and delight of Milly Lou (Anna Mae Kalbus), the noted household pest who liked Mervyn. Elmer Tuttle, the handy man, was played by Henry Grossman and his girl friend, Effie, the maid, by Florence Cooper, who suffered through it all, and never seemed to be able to make her slip stop showing. Two neighbor children who were nearly always over for dinner were Shirley and Ralph Wentworth, played by Joyce Gall and James Morger. The play was written by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clemens and directed by Ila Grace Hagie.

JUNIOR PROM

After "June Mad" the juniors were faced with the task of the prom. Preparations were begun and after much bickering the theme, "The Garden of the Moon," was chosen, decorating began, an orchestra hired, and the refreshments planned. Then the big night came; everything went like clockwork; no one tripped in the grand march; the prom queen, Margaret Birkeland, was crowned; and her attendants, Patty Anderson, senior; Margaret James, junior; Leona Reichelt, sophomore; and Ann Katzenberger, freshman, were announced. Everyone went home tired, and looking forward, not too happily, to the Havre Band Festival the next day.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

"Ya" know to be a sophomore class "ya gotta be sorta" patient. As a class, nobody notices you. All the glint, luster, and glitter of the first freshman days has tarnished long ago. We took our initiation on the chin and "came up" smiling, but that seems to be "sorta" forgotten. Our president, Kiki Gray, and our sponsor, Miss Cooney, really did a marvelous job during our freshman year; and we "aren't so bad" in our choice this year—Bill Preuninger and Miss Johnson.

But don't "get us wrong"! We're "rearin' and ready" to take over the position held by this year's Juniors.

SENIOR PLAY

"Going Places" was the appropriate title of a farce in three acts given on November 25, 1941.

The plot centers around getting Chuck Malloy (Daryl Hagie) a whiz at football, but a dud at Ancient History, into Dartford College. But they have to contend with Dr. Stubbs (Clark Hilton) and Dr. Kimball, president of the college (Junior Tope). Ella Kimball (Pat Wackerlin) is the wife of the president. Jeff Sterling, student football manager (Bill Louther), enlists the help of Shirley, Dr. Kimball's daughter (Mary Gray), Rosemary Lee (Patty Anderson), an attractive co-ed, and Gladys Miller, a music student and part-time maid of the Kimballs (Alice Galbraith). The plot thickens as Cuthbert Lee (John Sullivan), highbrow cousin of Rosemary, takes Chuck's exam. Dr. Kimball is kept guessing as to who is Kate Malloy, Chuck's rich aunt, because Mrs. Stubbs (Mabel Stevens), wife of Dr. Stubbs, and Florence Ward (Margaret Birkeland), a magazine feature writer, each in turn portray Aunt Kate. When Aunt Kate (Betty Schmidt) finally appears, everything is worked out. Chuck and Cuthbert are admitted to the college, and Aunt Kate endows a new college library.

STUNT DAY

It's all over for another year! The Seniors sponsored their annual Stunt Day on April 10. It was rather windy, but we marched all over town, led by the German Band, while people on the side lines took snapshots and moving pictures.

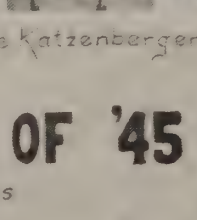

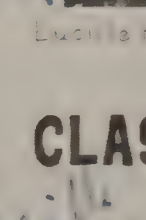

Of the various stunts, the Freshmen won first prize for their interpretation of the Faculty in their younger years. The sophomores gave "Father Gets Took" and took second prize. With a modern version of Little Red Riding Hood, the Seniors placed third.

Leona Reichelt, as Little Red Riding Hood won a prize for the best girl's costume. Kenneth Vinion, as the Nazi prisoner, had the most original boy's costume and Lee Katzenberger had the funniest boy's costume. Lurene Anderson and Lorraine Baker won the prize for the best couple, the Rinso twins.

FRESHMAN CLASS

We came into our right as a class of FBHS "clumpin' along" in our overshoes, bowing in our gunny sacks, and looking, in general, a bit clumsy. But, they say, you shouldn't judge a "fella" by his appearance; and we think we've proved it. We've given the old grindstone a real push and showed "evabody" that we've got pep, beauty, and brains.

A good president and a good sponsor are the prerequisites of a really successful class, and our choice of Lucille Hanford for president and Miss Holmes for sponsor was, in our opinion, a very good one.

Yes, we know we'll have to go through "the chrysalis stage" in our development next year, but we're made of the "stuff that really counts," so watch our "dust" in the three years to come.

HIGH SCHOOL WEEK

Fort Benton, again this year walked off with a great many honors at the annual Bozeman High School Week. Those who took places were as follows: Leona Reichelt, 3rd in French I; Lorraine Baker, 1st in Pentathlon, 1st in Literature, 1st in Algebra II, 2nd in Trigonometry, and 2nd in Chemistry; Florence Cooper, 1st in Shorthand I, and 1st in English III; Eldon Adams, 3rd in Bookkeeping; Robert Craig, 1st in Civics, 2nd in Algebra II, and 2nd in Pentathlon; Stanley Whitehorn, 2nd in Science Major; Keith Neyland, 1st in Trigonometry, 2nd in Mathematics Major; Mabel Stevens, 1st in Home Economics Major; Lee Katzenberger, 3rd in Algebra; Lucille Hanford, 1st in General Science, 1st in English I.

This year in addition to their trip to Bozeman the students made a tour of Montana's only natural cave, Morrison Cave, near Whitehall.

The director, Mr. Chapin, introduced the idea of marching and forming letters between halves of basketball games and this made the band a great attraction at each game. Then Mr. Chapin resigned at the end of the first semester and Mr. Alvin Halvorson from Moorhead, Minnesota, was secured for the position.

There were two concerts during the year, one in the fall, and one in the spring. These were well received by music lovers of Fort Benton.

The band went to the annual music festival at Havre on May 9, thus winding up a busy musical year at FBHS.

BASKETBALL

This has been the most successful basketball season in years. The Longhorns were champions at the sub-district, took second at the district, and fourth in the regional. The team played the hardest schedule in years, losing only seven games and winning twenty-four.

Perhaps the most notable thing about the team was that every man was a vital part of the machine that rolled to victory in so many games.

The team outscored their opponents 935 to 621, and averaged only six fouls per game.

DARYL HAGIE, senior, was captain and star forward, second high scorer, and one of the best floor game players on the team.

WILLIAM LOUTHER, senior, high scorer for the team. He was a good man on the rebounds and also a good pivot shot man.

KEITH NEYLAND, senior, high scoring forward. Keith was dangerous at any time but when he got "hot", he could sink baskets from anywhere.

ARTHUR BENNETT, senior, was our best defensive player. His ability to jump gave him virtual control of the backboard.

LEO KILROY, junior, Leo, the Small, turned in some amazing performances and should be a high scorer next year.

CLAIR SYKES, junior, played a good game at guard and was a very dependable player.

VERN FISHER, junior, improved rapidly and became regular guard for the tournament. He shows much promise for next year.

WILLIAM PREUNINGER, sophomore, one of the most improved players on the team. He should be a tough man under the basket with his ability to control rebounds.

CHESTER HALLEY, junior, "Chet" will be back next year and after three years of experience should be a top notch forward next year and a player hard to stop.

HAROLD KRSUL, senior, Harold only got in a few of the games, but was always to be counted on for at least one tally.

THEODORE KELLEY, sophomore, "Ted" was sub-center and whenever he got in, he was sure to make his quota of points.

FOOTBALL

The Fort Benton Longhorns started out their football season with a sudden hard fought victory over the Choteau Bulldogs by a score of 7 to 6. The game was played on a muddy gridiron which limited the two teams' running offense. Choteau made the first touchdown and it was not until the third quarter that a long pass was thrown and the Longhorns scored. Another pass was thrown in the end zone for the extra point which put the Longhorns in the lead.

The Longhorns edged out the Chinook football squad by a score of 12 to 7. This game was also played on a muddy field. The Chinook squad was the first to score but the Longhorns finally drove to victory.

The Longhorns clashed with the Havre Colts but the Longhorns' driving power was too much for the Colts. The Longhorns won by a large margin, the score being 39 to 0.

The Longhorns traveled to Conrad to play the Conrad Cowboys and suffered their first defeat by a score of 27 to 7. The Conrad squad showed some very fine football, especially in their running offense. The Malta squad and the Conrad eleven met to determine the championship, and the Malta squad gained the title.

The Longhorns traveled to Malta to determine the championship of the district and lost by a score of 26 to 6.

1941 TRACK

The track season this year (1941) was one of varied success. It showed up several promising prospects for future years.

The first meet was held in Great Falls on April 25. Then on May 9 we attended the meet at Havre. We were handicapped here because some of the boys had gone to Bozeman for High School Week. On May 14 we went to the big meet of the year—the State Meet at Missoula.

Most consistent point winner on the squad was Arthur Bennett, in the high jump and broad jump. In the distance run, Calvin Fultz was an important point winner. William Preuninger, a sophomore, took honors in the shot put, discus, and javelin; and with two years to go he ought to be one of the best in the state.

Middle Row—Mr. Hess, Arthur Kleinschmidt, William Preuninger, William Tope, Keith Neyland, William Louther, Mr. Zile.

B CLUB

The B Club is an organization made up of all the boys who have won their letters in either football, basketball, or track. Last spring the club had a meeting at which Daryl Hagie was elected president; Donald Gall, vice president; and Arthur Bennett, secretary-treasurer, with Mr. Zile and Mr. Hess, co-sponsors.

The club participated in a ticket sale for the sub-district basketball tournament which was played off on the home floor for the first time.

In the spring the members of the club plan and supervise the county grade track meet.

"Safe Driving" was the theme of their radio broadcast over KFBB this winter. As another project the members are buying Defense Stamps and Bonds.

The F. F. A. is a national organization and this chapter sends delegates to the State Conference at Bozeman every spring. The boys have planted 1100 tomato plants to be used in home gardens. They furnished a program for a Kiwanis Club meeting.

This year's officers are: Frank Clark, president; Calvin Fultz, first vice president; James Allen, second vice president; Frank Manley, secretary; Donald Knudson, treasurer; and Tom McKenzie, reporter.

GLEE CLUB

"Music hath charms." The chorus has proven this by their presentation of a light program of "Southern Melodies." This was a gala affair with leg o' mutton sleeves, sweeping trains, and bustles adding color and variety to the scene.

The Glee Club was quite active this year, and was formed under the direction of Miss Johnson. Betty Schmidt was elected president; Margaret Birkeland, vice president; and Helen Campbell, librarian.

During the course of the year the club participated in several programs, and ended their activities by singing at Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

HOME EC CLUB

Wasn't Co-ed Prom fun? Oh yes, there were a lot of patriotic costumes, and others showing national conservation and good neighbor policy. But all the Daisy Mae's weren't satisfied with one event. They made candy, sold it at basketball games, had a Christmas party, sponsored a style show, entertained the faculty, and their mothers at a tea, and served a tea for the seniors. But as yet they hadn't even seen Li'l Abner, so they made bed-side bags for the Red Cross, in order that they might at least help those away from home. They finally plotted and caught some Li'l Abners at a picnic for the F. F. A. boys.

Leading the band in the chase were Miss Holmes, sponsor, and Mabel Stevens, president. Close on their heels came Wilma Blackwood, vice president; Esther Humphrey, secretary; and Anna Mae Kalbus, treasurer.

Back Row—Effie Ritland, Dorothy Ronning, Alice Galbraith, Mabel Stevens, Jean Reynolds.
Middle Row—Virginia Swanson, Arthur Bennett, Jacqueline Castor, Kenneth Vinion, Betty Schmidt, Leo Kilroy, Margaret Birkeland.

PRESS CLUB

With a membership of twenty-four students, the Press Club organized under Miss Helen Fechter for the year 1941-1942. Dick Moses was elected president; John Sullivan, vice-president; and Pat Wackerlin, secretary.

Each meeting was under the direction of a committee of members, with food and fun following the regular business.

In the fall, the Press Club had a magazine subscription campaign.

Just before Christmas, a delegation went to Great Falls to attend an MIEA meeting there, and came back with new ideas and the memory of a good time.

Back Row—Mabel Stevens, Jean Reynolds, Alice Galbraith, Mary Gray.

QUILL AND SCROLL

FBHS's chapter of Quill and Scroll is a small chapter of the national honorary journalism society. The members this year have sponsored a school song contest and led a song assembly. In order to gain some necessary funds, the chapter sold candy at the sub-district tournament. A breakfast picnic was the last get-together of the group for the school year. This club has deviated from the usual meeting plan and holds its meetings at noon with a luncheon. It is governed by a Board of Representatives. Each member or representative takes his turn at presiding at a meeting.

THESPIANS

At the home of Margaret Birkeland, new members were initiated into Thespian Troupe No. 195 during the winter months.

Those suffering the initiation were—Mabel Stevens, Betty Schmidt, Alice Galbraith, and Pat Wackerlin. This brought the membership to eleven.

Officers are: Margaret Birkeland, president; Clark Hilton, vice president; Patty Anderson, secretary-treasurer.

In the spring a number of juniors from the junior play, "June Mad", were inducted into the club.

SPEECH CLASS PLAYS

The Speech Class this year presented a program of four one-act plays instead of their usual three. As a bit of variety, one of the plays, SEEING DOUBLE, featured two characters in each part. COMMAND PERFORMANCE had its setting in Oriental surroundings and was a combination comedy and tragedy. CABBAGES took place in a German home, in which Mrs. Grossmeir was determined to find out her family tree, and it was decidedly different from what she had hoped! CRITICAL CASE was built around the story of a girl who was sure that she had pneumonia whenever she had a cold and a tumor on the brain if she had a headache. The Speech Class took in more this year for these plays than ever taken in for a similar program before.
